

Jones ^{and} Whitlock

[Insurance Agents, 1 Liberty St.], 1920

March 26th, 1920.

Jones & Whitlock, Managers,
1 Liberty Street,
New York.

Dear Sirs:-

Referring to your policy A 1750, I beg to advise that we will use the book which you have sent us.. Kindly present your bill for five dollars which will be immediately forwarded for payment.

Thank you for your courtesy in explaining this way of insuring mail packages.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

September 3rd, 1920.

Jones & Whitlock, Managers,
1 Liberty Street,
New York.

Dear Sirs:-

As per the enclosed order, kindly send us one of your Parcel Post Insurance books containing one hundred coupons. A cheque will be sent to cover upon receipt of your bill.

Very truly yours,

Assistant to Curator.

September 8th, 1920

Globe & Rutgers Fire Insurance Co.
1 Liberty Street, New York

Attention - Mr. R. Degener

Gentlemen:

Your letter of September 7th enclosing policy for insuring property sent by mail is received. We note that the parcel post book is coming under separate cover, and shall expect to receive it shortly.

Very truly yours,

Assistant to Curator

W/E

Parcel Post Insurance

NOTICE

Your supply of coupons is nearly exhausted. You will find the attached blank convenient in ordering a new book.

BUY LARGER BOOKS

You save your employees time—have more complete shipping records under one cover—avoid delay in getting additional coupons and are fully prepared for any shipping emergency. Bear in mind that the Parcel Post is a simple solution of freight tie-up and congestion, offering the swiftest means of delivery devised and the new parcel post weight limits enable you to ship larger packages.

Coupons are issued in books of 100, 200, 300, 500 and 1000, in 5c denomination.

“A Globe & Rutgers Policy Represents the Best Insurance.”

(AGENTS EVERYWHERE)

Ordered book November 18th, 1920.

see De Baur

Globe and Pulpers